THE HOME PAPER OF BOSTON.

By T. E. Powers

GOVERNMENT BY THE PEOPLE

SEVENTH, the election of Senators by the people, and of Judges for short terms, that no branch of government shall feel itself too far above the people or too long removed from the people.

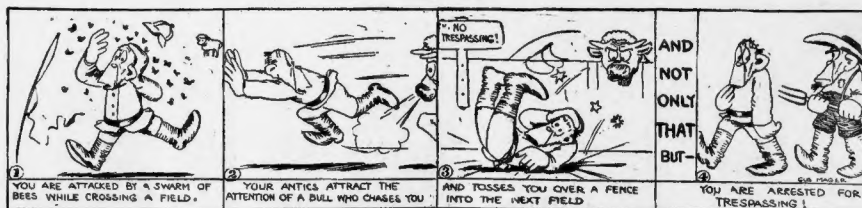

Perhaps that is just as well, for those without the money have got to do the THINKING, and the easy-going rich and the public officials are teaching the mass to think. It's a pretty slow process, but it will probably succeed in the long run.

A political cartoon by H. H. Munroe. It depicts a man in traditional Scottish attire (kilt, sporran, and tam o' shanter) being stopped by a British customs officer. The Scottish man is holding a small, ornate object, possibly a pipe or a small statue, which the officer is inspecting. A sign on the wall reads "NOTICE" and "EXCISE". In the background, a steam locomotive is visible, and the scene is set in a station or a similar public area. The cartoon is signed "H. H. Munroe" at the bottom.
